

Race Ethnicity and Place Preliminary Program

Wednesday 6:00-8:00 OPENING RECEPTION
Thursday 8:20-10:10 Geographies of Refuge I: Frazier, Skop, Bose -Remembering Refuge: Digital Memorialization and Commemoration of Damascus's Yarmouk Palestinian Refugee Camp; Matthew DeMaio -Housing for Profit, not for Refugees: Refugee Migration and the Urban Geographies of Racial Capitalism in Berlin, Germany; René Kroschwald -You Crossed What Border? International recognition, Identity, and Practical Authority; Joanne Held Cummings; -Feminist Geopolitics of Climate Change Displacement among Political Refugees in Bangladesh; Nurat Mohamud; -Ukrainian Refugees in Poland; Weronika A. Kusek;	Room 111 Indigenous Knowledge and Re-Placing Indigenous Chair: Yolanda Valencia •Nicholas Cuba, Indigenous identification in the Northern Triangle of Central America: Variation through space and time, and understanding its relationship to family migration to the USA •Dybeth Alcantar, Geographies of Displacement and the Refusals to Forced Migration of the Mixteca Alta, Oaxaca •Yolanda Valencia, The Necropolis of the War on Things: How the Global Hurts the Intimate •Krislin Green, Conceptions of Space in National Forest Governance •Nicole Hutton, A Tribal Planning Process for Climate-Influenced Hazards Along the Mattaponi River	Room 211 Education, Teaching and Pedagogy Chair: Jessie Lame •Michael Allen, The Chesapeake Bay Climate Institute: Enhancing K-16 Climate Literacy in the Chesapeake Bay •Jennifer Harbour, Using Racially Restrictive Covenants to Teach the History of Exclusionary Housing in America •Wan Yu, (John Frazier), Evolution in the Foci of Academic Disciplines: Geography at Binghamton University as an Exemplar •Chelsea Abaka, Names and Identity: A Framework for DEIS Initiatives •Ariana Cantu, Makenzie Waller & Cristian Roman Palacios, Bridging the Digital and Analog Divide for Teaching Race, Place & Community-Centered Spatial Justice	Room 212 Displacement, Exclusion, and Inequities Chair: Jeannette Gabriel •Annie Sun Liu, Solange Munoz, From Public Housing to Vouchers: the impacts of redevelopment and forced displacement on low-income public housing residents •Nicole Robinson, (David Patel), How Place, Race, Crime, Gentrification & Climate Change Intersect in the City of Milwaukee: A call to protect Black Land and end carceral gentrification •Jeannette Gabriel, Mapping the Destruction of Kellom Heights: How Urban Renewal Impacted Omaha's Black Homeownership •Chad Odeh, Gentrification, Lead Poisoning, and Youth Violence in New York City •Jay L. Newberry, Police Violence and the Deaths of People of Color	Room 214 Panel: Investing where the needs are greatest: Operationalizing investing with the people and places where the needs are greatest Organized by Nicole D. Franklin / panelists: Nicole D. Franklin, Frank Romo, Clinton Johnson	Room B16
Thursday 10:20-12 Geographies of Refuge II: Frazier, Skop, Bose -Unsettling Refugee Resettlement? Evidence from Central Iowa between 2017-2021; Emily Frazier; -The 'good immigrant' and the 'docile worker': challenging narratives of desirability in/and refugee labor; Pablo Bose -"There is no safe place in this plant." Refugee labour, the Canadian meatpacking industry and the limits of legal status; Bronwyn Bragg -Resettlement volunteers and the production of 'home'; Caroline Nagel; -Theorizing the politics of refuge and the ethos of care in refugee resettlement; Emily Skop;	Indigeneity, Nationalism, and Sovereignty: Session Organized by Jeremy Tasch Chair: Jeremy Tasch •Khangha Sempel and Nicole Mayberry, Interrogating (in)Justice: Indigenous Communities' Role in Energy Transitions Amidst 'Get out of the Way' Rhetoric •Alexandra Lamina, Indigenous Geospatial Mobility: Agency, Gender, and Urbanization in Ecuadorian Amazonia •Vera Kuklina, (Kelsey Nyland, Jacob Tafraie), On a way to knowledge co-production with "remote" communities: experience of participatory mapping of extractive infrastructure development •Jeremy Tasch, Balancing Appeals to Indigeneity, Nationalism, Citizenship, and Sovereignty: Comparative Northern Perspectives	Schools, Academia, and Learning Environment Chair: Jeremy Tasch •Jennifer LaFleur, Boston-area Learning Pods: Using Space to Establish Social Proximity During the COVID-19 Pandemic •Nathan Burch, Mapping higher education's place in structural racism •Leah Montague, (Koby Smyth), GIS, Policing, Eco, and US: Unpacking •Gloria Howerton, Demying Racial Animus: Political Discourse in Anti-Ethnic Studies Legislation •Michael Ewers (Bethany Shockley), Graduate Migration and Place Consonance in an Era of Social and Political Unrest	Urban Interventions: Insecurities, Injustices, and Care Chair: Christine Dando •Mia Dawson, Abolition and the everyday life of Sacramento's carceral housing crisis •Melisa Arganaraz Gomez, Geographies of immigrant care: Latinx care amidst housing and neighborhood insecurity in East Baltimore •Christina Dando, "Who received loans?": HOVC and the Omaha Landscape •Jonathan McCombs, In Bad Faith: The Racial Politics of "Best Use" and the Neo-liberalization of Social Housing after the Liberal Turn in Budapest, Hungary •Ulrike Gerhard and Judith Keller, No place for trust – Exploring the interrelations of trust and home on the US housing market	Literary and Musical Places and Identities Chair: Natalie Rose Thompson •Natalie Rose Thompson, Cereus Blooms at Night: Fiction as Counter-mapping •Leenu Sugathan, Caste, Race, and Human Rights: The Abolitionist Imaginary in A Gardener in the Wasteland •Leoni Gold, Mapping Disaster and Possibility in Paul Beatty's The Sellout •Mark J. Sciacchetti Jr., (Denise Von Glahn), Music, Race, and Memorialization: An Analysis of Place and Identity through the Works of Charles Ives.
Lunch
Thursday 1:20-3 Geographies of Refuge III: Frazier, Skop, Bose -Legal Bordering of Asylum through Liminality; Alisa Hartzell and Sarah A. Blue; -Producing "Illegality": The racialization of Mexican and Central American asylum seekers in the United States; Sarah A. Blue and Alisa Hartzell; -Cuerpo-Territorio of Mexican Displacement: A Decolonial Feminist Geopolitics of Re-Existence; Alicia Danze; Rebecca Maria Torres, Caroline Faria, Valentina Glockner, Emanuela Borzacchiello, Edith Herrera-Marinier; -Glimches in the Digitization of Asylum: How CBP One Turns Migrants' Smartphones into Mobile Borders; Austin Kocher; -Asylum Politics and the Shifting Landscapes of Humanitarianism in Southern Arizona; Lisa Nelson and Liz Oglesby	Understanding Power and Land Relationships via Food Systems. Session Organized by Colleen Hammelman and Dylan Turner •Andrew White, Reorienting urban environments toward justice through bottom-up approaches and how top-down institutions may support •Emanuel Preciado, The Little Farm: cultivating resistance in Santa Ana •Colleen Hammelman, Relational place-making in immigrant foodscapes •Dylan Turner, Owning the Island: Community Land Trusts as a Tool for Developing Food Sovereignty in the City	Panel : NSF and Funding your Research 1:20-2:10 Organized by May Yuan and Antoinette Winklerprins Panel: Translating your Research to Policy Makers 2:10-3:00 Organized by Elizabeth Vegaera and Trey Johnson	Panel : Housing Justice Organized by Solange Muñoz and Ulrike Gerhard / panelists : Amanda Haron, Courtney Battle, Danilo Pelletiere, Dominic Moulton, Ginger Rumpf, Judith Keller	Panel : Playful Reworkings: Critical Geographies of Inequality and Change Organized by E.C. Kaufman / panelists : E.C. Kaufman, Dena Aufseeser, Nicole Fabricant, Melissa Argañaz Gomez, Dillon Mahmood	Panel: Closing the Gap: Overcoming Social Inequalities in Geography Organized by Ann Oberhauser / panelists Selima Subana, Wei Li, Jeun Lee, Ann Oberhauser, and Alyssa Ramirez
Thursday 3:20-5 Geographies of Refuge IV: Frazier, Skop, Bose -"Why would I want to be a U.S. Citizen if I can't petition for my mom?": Unraveling the implications of Special Immigrant Juvenile Status for Unaccompanied Children from Central America; Esther Sarai Ramos; -The Accessibility of Refugee Education Services in the Southeastern Region of the United States; Genevieve Stark; -"Let's not do that again!": Tensions in researching the work of trauma of war and refugee resettlement; Patricia Ehrkamp, Jenna M. Loyd, Anna J. Secor; -Research in times of emergency: Ethical considerations in immigrant and refugee research; Lauren Fritzsche; -Refugee/Migrant Youth Care Work & Employment in Rural Appalachia; Cynthia Gorman and Valentina Murales-Baran.	Food Access and Production Chair: Kefa Cisse •Christian Keave, Cooperative Geographies of Care, Mobility, and Fugitivity through Contemporary Seed Work •Hala M. Ossa, African Immigrant Farmers in the US •Margaret Lane Walton, (Frances Koe, Breanne Brazee), Alabama Food Solutions: Challenges and Potential Solutions for Improved Food Access •Chelsea R. Singleton, (Lindy Olive, Azucena Lopez, Akliah Smith, Anastasiya Malisic, Fikriyah Winata, Diego Rios, Karen Sheehan, Robin Fretwell Wilson, Sara McLaughlin), A Mixed-Methods Study Exploring the Impact of Crime on Food Retail Businesses in Historically Low-Resourced Black Communities •Ivy Ken, (K. Sebastian Leon), Colonizing Rural Space: Immigration Strategy in the Meatpacking Sector	Rethinking rural geographies: decentralizing white narratives in rural spaces. Organized by Devadoss, Mercedes Chaired by Christabel Devadoss •James Chaney, Latinx Identity and Belonging in Rural Tennessee •Christabel Devadoss, More than the "white working class": narratives of people of color in rural Rust Belt spaces •Douglas L. Allen, Try that in a Small Town: Race, Music, and Rural Place-Making •Joshua Merced, (Selima Sultana, Joe Weber, Ridwana Allen, Gregory Carlton), Great Smoky Mountains National Park and its Missing Black Visitors: A Preliminary Analysis on the Hidden Architecture of Landscape Discussant: Joshua Merced	Panel : Race in the (Marked) Place Organized by Anthony Keame Harrison / panelists Anthony Kwame Harrison, Vanessa Gail Perry, Lynn Addington, Komal Dhilon	Panel : Placing "Race" in Introductory Geography Classes Organized by Tamar Rothenberg / panelists : Marissa Isaak Wald (Central New Mexico Community College), Mark Barnes (Morgan State University), Caitie Finlayson (Mary Washington University), Tamara Bigas (Harford Community College), Greg Hill (John Horn High School, Mesquite, Texas), Eric Sarmiento (Texas State University), Lauren Gerlowski (University of Wisconsin)
Lunch
Friday 8:20-10 Right to the city and economic issues Chair: Madhusri Sharma •F.M. Kim, Blocked: Proptech as a gatekeeping mechanism for rental housing •Madhusri Sharma, Intra-urban Disparity in Homeownership in Nashville, Tennessee •David C. Eisenhauer, Developing landscapes of coastal capitalism in Asbury Park •Seth Marcus and Samuel Stokes, Analyzing borrower demographics and spatial patterns of Ginnie Mae's Mortgage-Backed Securities programs •Gregory Squires, One Key to Reducing the Nation's Wealth Disparities: The Shift From Market Participants to Citizens	Alternate Mapping and Critical GIS Chair: Aida Gulinciozzi •Sabina Bhandari, (Debi Gosh), Community-Health-Investigation-and-Participatory (CHIP) Tool for Mapping Social Justice •Aida Gulinciozzi, Micro Latine Geographies: Observable Elements of Latine Spaces and Businesses in the Chicago Suburbs •Jerry Shannon, (Maya Henderson, Amber Orozco, Aidan Hyijilinn, Jessica Martinez, and Maya Rao), Mapping Black Presence and Absence in Athens, Georgia •Simone Youali, "BI Source of Abortion Information": Google Maps' (Mis)Representation of Texan Anti-Abortion Centers •Hillary Mallon, Unincorporated and Under Threat	Biopolitics, Neopolitics, and De/Colonizing the Marginalized Chair: Susan Belury •Leanne Purdum, Threatening separation to justify detention: US family separation policy and litigation over family detention centers •Aida Gulinciozzi, "Unbiased" Explosives: Differing post-conflict vulnerabilities amid global crises, •Susan E. Hume, Are Bornies St. Louis' "Model Minority"? •Jared Keyel, Nationality, Ethnicity, and (Im)Migration: Epistemic Limits of Homogenizing Categories, and Possibilities for Liberatory Post-National Futures	Environmental Justice 1 Chair: Susan Belury •Lucas Belury, Environmental Racism in the Colonias of the Rio Grande Valley; Data, Vulnerability, and Flood Justice •Kathryn Shortridge, (Kianna Henderson, Richard Sadler), Maternal Health Disparities and the Flint, Michigan Water Crisis •Joshua Kafui and Joseph Oppong, The Environmental Impacts of Galamsey (Illegal Artisanal Gold Mining) on Selected Communities in Ghana •Jonnell Robinson, Amelha Thibault (Lauren Ashby), Uprooting tree inequity in Syracuse, NY: Using a participatory approach, digital storytelling, and GIS mapping to demonstrate the impact of a youth urban forestry corps on urban canopy cover and youth empowerment •Madeline Crawford, Evaluating The Spatial Distribution of Excessive Heat Risk in Denton County	Fitting In: Racial Politics and Political Targets Chair: James M. Smith •James M. Smith, Irish Immigrant Labor Structure in Baltimore on the Eve of the Civil War •Alan P. Marcus, The U.S. Eugenics Movement and the Dangers of the Geographical Imagination: Its Impacts on U.S. Domestic Policies and Its Relevance Today •Greg Hill, Targeting Black Neighborhoods With the Interstate Highway System •Hillary Mallon, Unincorporated and Under Threat •Gordon Mantler, The Multiracial Promise: Coalition and Mayoral Politics in America's Second City
Friday 10:20-12 Panel: Title: Mapping and Empowerment for Social Justice Danny Block Yongmei Lu Clayton Johnson Jeremy Crangton	People Matter: Knowledge Production "By" not "For" Chair: Kermit O •Jesse Palma, (Nicole Hutton), Resilience Planning with Participatory Mapping in Hopewell, VA •Kermit O, Participatory Methods, Counterpower, and the Co-Production of Space •Laura Krystal Porterfield, (Lynette Mawhinney, Adeleke Phillips, Nichelle Odojayi, and Dorothy Handfield), Picturing the World: Exploring Community Scholars' Meditations on Race, Place, and Politics in New Jersey •Rodolfo Hernandez, Lubbock's Socioenvironmental Hazards Revisited: A century of Old-New Racial Disparities	Immigrants, Labor, and Empowerment Chair: Linh Nguyen •Linh Nguyen, High-Skilled Workers: Vietnamese in the United States, Place Integration, Place Identity and Challenges •Wade Fliges, Hispanic Migration to Fairmont City, Illinois: Why Here? •Nabeela Farhat, (Selima Sultana), Immigrants and Inequality: Evidence from a Minor Emerging Gateway Metropolitan Area in NC •Yining Tan, (Diaoqi Tong, Trisalyn Nelson), Everyday mobility of Skilled U.S. Migrants in the Pearl River Delta Region of China •Thomas Owusu, Rethinking the African Immigrant Experience in North America	Environmental Justice 2 Chair: Lauren Ashby •Shawn Williams, Climate Justice in the Energy Capital: Investigating Community Engagement on the Gulf Coast •Colin Chadduck, (Younsang Kim), Built Environment Projects in Regionally Marginalized Communities and Regional Climate Fluctuation: Hybla Valley and the U.S. Route 1 Corridor •Lauren Ashby, Stephen Caviness, Karley Voyias, Nicole Fonger, (Jonnell Robinson), Youth centered community, collaboration, and learning in mathematics and geography for environmental justice •Ajodeji Yanda, Spatial Social Network and Greenspace Utilization Among Minority Youths in the United States •Mlain Eliege, Water justice in the Republic of Benin: Spatial analysis of unequal access to drinking water in https://doi.org/10.1016/j.sbspro.2014.06.001	Geographies of Memory and Heritage Chair: Perry Carter •Samuel A. Smith, Narrating the Civil Rights Movement: Multi-Site Narratives in 'Tourist' Guidebooks •Mark Alan Rhodes II, (Kathryn Laura Hemann, Anna Kavanagh, Zsófia Retola, and Adam Wellstood), (B)bordering World Heritage: Mapping and managing disparate geographies of industrial heritage •Katrina Stack, Of Tent Cities and Freedom Houses: Preserving the Memory of Resistance Homes in the African American Freedom Struggle •Hillary Ansh, (Yusik Cho, Tongmei Lu), Recognizing Texas Women in Time and Place: A Qualitative GIS Inquiry into Historical Markers in Texas. •Perry L. Carter, Harlem as Told from Its Streets: How African American walking tours use the city to recount Black History
Lunch
Friday 1:20-3 Gendered Geographies Chair: Biqin Johnson-Anomomwo •Jari Minnett, The Southern Sensibilities of Gendered Racial Intellectual Activists •Malika Binte Mohiuddin, Unveiling challenges in participatory mapping: Power Dynamics, Inequality and Gender Exclusion •Biqin Johnson-Anomomwo, Selima Sultana, Race, Gender, and Community: Reassessing the Research •Eliso Strader, The Macrocosmology of Paid Domestic Labor Revisited: Globalization of Domestic Work and Differences in Earnings among Native-Born Women	Panel : Mapping for a Change Organized by Jamila Moore Pewu/ panelists Jamila Moore Pewu, Scherly Virgili, Sarah Garcia	Panel : Navigating Borders and Belonging: An Exploration of Immigration and Migration in Cultural Geography Organized by William Kiskowski / panelists : William Kiskowski, Weronika Kusek, Linh Nguyen, Michael D'Amo, Moderator : Jeremy Tasch	Specializing Vulnerabilities, Resilience, and Health Chair: Charlie Zhang •Zellu Zheng, Spatial Behavior of Hospital Visits by Hand, Foot, and Mouth Disease Patients in Nanchang, China. •Charlie H. Zhang, Exploring the environmental risk factors for diabetes with a focus on heavy metal exposure •Ho Min Park, (Denise Chavez, Sian Sosar, Natalia Figueroa-Bernal), Jennifer Rodriguez Alvarez, Juvenio Rocha-Peralta), Participatory exposure monitoring using GPS-enabled portable air pollution sensors to address environmental health disparities •Kuanu Han, (Wenying Li, Haduan Wang), A Burning Issue: Wildfire Smoke Exposure, Retail Sales, and Demand for Adaptation	Archives, Maps, and Knowledge Production Chair: Steven Holloway •Dena Aufseeser, Moving beyond victimhood: Locating working children in interstitial spaces of the archives •Amber Orozco, (Jerry Shannon), Countering the Archive in the Athens 1958 City Directory Project to Center Black Geographies •Cy Abbott, Artifacts of a Discipline at Work: Tracing the Geographer's Influence Through the "Cartographic Records of the American Commission to Negotiate Peace" •Steven Holloway, (Scott Markely, Jerry Shannon, Marshall Shepherd, Yangjain Wei), Redlining Echoes in today's Urban Heat Island? Race, Suburbanization, and Neighborhood Residential Exposure to Excess Urban Heat in Atlanta, GA •Kely Caldwell, Cartographies of Jim Crow: Black mobilities and the Spatiality of Struggle
Friday 3:20-5 Queer Geographies Chair: Trushna Parekh •Trushna Parekh, Remembering Mary's, Naturally •Jamal Brooks-Hawkins, Trade Subjectivity: Black Sexual Ecologies •Hanyang (Frank) Meng, Crossing Oceans, Changing Lives: Queer Chinese 1.5 Generation Transmigrants and Their Sexuality Pre- and Post-Migration to the U.S. •Shamayeta Bhattacharya, (Debarchana Ghosh), Evaluating healthcare access index of Hijra, Kothi, and Transgender Individuals in eastern India.	Panel : Cartographies of the Global South Organized by Andreina Malki / panelists : Javier Arce-Nazario, Andreina Malki, Adrienne Hall, Ingrid Diaz Moreno, Devon Maloney	Race and Place in the Externalization of the U.S. Border in the Americas. Session organized by Soledad Alvarez Velasco, Lindsey Carte, Solange Muñoz Chair: Lindsey Carte •Yaelit Gueraera Gonzalez, (Carmen Fernandez Casanueva), ¿Pura Vida?: Migrant's passage experiences through Costa Rica •Lindsey Carte, (Tereisa Rocha Jimenez, Solange Muñoz), From Chile to Mexico and back again: Chile as a node in the new geographies of migration in South America •Soledad Alvarez Velasco, Even if I have debt, I will not stop fighting. Irregularized, indebted, in transit and in struggle: Migrant women across the Americas. Solange Muñoz, Discussant	Quantitative Methods in the service of Social Justice Chair: Jay Newberry •Wan Cheung, Examining equity in pedestrian fatalities using a geographic approach •John Postinger, (Russel Weaver), Social Institutions as Agents of Electoral Equity: How Ethnically-Targeted Get Out The Vote Efforts in Texas Might be Contributing to Higher Latino Turnout •John Laumann and Mariah Hill, Middle class displacement in heavily gentrified neighborhoods, 1990-2020	Networks, Identities, and Racializing Places Chair: Ines Miyares •Kathryn L. Hannum, The multicultural Buenos Aires; fostering diversity through ethnic networks. •Ines Miyares, Celebrating Islander Identity: Polynesian Festivals in the Pacific Northwest •Tia Pincock, Inside, Outside, On the Pier, In the Market: Racialising Space, Spatialising Race in Jamaica's Craft Industry •Raymond S Jennings, Liberté, Egalité, Sororité: Assessing racial urban governance and place-making via the sonic landscape in postcolonial France
Friday 6:00-8:00 CLOSING RECEPTION
Keynote Speakers: Deyna Bowen Matthew "Race, Place, and Health: What To Do When The Law's Not On Your Side" Mark Lopez "The geography of Latino racial identities in the U.S." Room 211
Thursday 12:00-3:00 Posters	In the Lobby
Posters	<table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>Author</th> <th>Title</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>Ron Malega, Edwin Gomez</td> <td>Puerto Rican Perception of Police Harassment and Use and Benefits of Public Parks</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Laura Carolina Torres Vargas</td> <td>Gender structured representations of the migrant Venezuelan women in Colombian and Venezuelan Newspapers during 2015-2020.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Blair Tinkler</td> <td>Resistance Mapping</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Nicole D. Franklin</td> <td>Exploring Racial Equity and Impactful Investing Where the Needs Are Greatest</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Maddison Hodges</td> <td>GIS Analysis of Redlining on Urban Forest Composition in Urban New York State</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Lutfiyah Madyun</td> <td>The Eviction Crisis in Knoxville, TN 2020-present: Visualizing impacted Zones and Community-Based Solutions</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Danica Malone</td> <td>Speak Your Art Out</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Brandy Ayesu-Danso</td> <td>Social Ecological Systems in Akpabanyi, Ghana: The changes in Connections of Indigenous People to land, food, and local power</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Eden Mekonnen</td> <td>"But You Don't Look Habesha?" Assessing the Impact of Phenotypic Bias Among Eritrean and Ethiopian Diasporic Women and Femmes in Los Angeles</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Helena Mello</td> <td>Racial and Economic Profile nearby the Police Stations in Belo Horizonte, Brazil</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Alana Seaman & Karleigh Kolander</td> <td>Framed as flat: Exploring the relationship between tourism & place depictions devoid of diversity</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Joshua Blockstein</td> <td>Equitable Resilience: Understanding Preferred Community Assets and Latinx Social Capital</td> </tr> </tbody> </table>					Author	Title	Ron Malega, Edwin Gomez	Puerto Rican Perception of Police Harassment and Use and Benefits of Public Parks	Laura Carolina Torres Vargas	Gender structured representations of the migrant Venezuelan women in Colombian and Venezuelan Newspapers during 2015-2020.	Blair Tinkler	Resistance Mapping	Nicole D. Franklin	Exploring Racial Equity and Impactful Investing Where the Needs Are Greatest	Maddison Hodges	GIS Analysis of Redlining on Urban Forest Composition in Urban New York State	Lutfiyah Madyun	The Eviction Crisis in Knoxville, TN 2020-present: Visualizing impacted Zones and Community-Based Solutions	Danica Malone	Speak Your Art Out	Brandy Ayesu-Danso	Social Ecological Systems in Akpabanyi, Ghana: The changes in Connections of Indigenous People to land, food, and local power	Eden Mekonnen	"But You Don't Look Habesha?" Assessing the Impact of Phenotypic Bias Among Eritrean and Ethiopian Diasporic Women and Femmes in Los Angeles	Helena Mello	Racial and Economic Profile nearby the Police Stations in Belo Horizonte, Brazil	Alana Seaman & Karleigh Kolander	Framed as flat: Exploring the relationship between tourism & place depictions devoid of diversity	Joshua Blockstein	Equitable Resilience: Understanding Preferred Community Assets and Latinx Social Capital
Author	Title
Ron Malega, Edwin Gomez	Puerto Rican Perception of Police Harassment and Use and Benefits of Public Parks
Laura Carolina Torres Vargas	Gender structured representations of the migrant Venezuelan women in Colombian and Venezuelan Newspapers during 2015-2020.
Blair Tinkler	Resistance Mapping
Nicole D. Franklin	Exploring Racial Equity and Impactful Investing Where the Needs Are Greatest
Maddison Hodges	GIS Analysis of Redlining on Urban Forest Composition in Urban New York State
Lutfiyah Madyun	The Eviction Crisis in Knoxville, TN 2020-present: Visualizing impacted Zones and Community-Based Solutions
Danica Malone	Speak Your Art Out
Brandy Ayesu-Danso	Social Ecological Systems in Akpabanyi, Ghana: The changes in Connections of Indigenous People to land, food, and local power
Eden Mekonnen	"But You Don't Look Habesha?" Assessing the Impact of Phenotypic Bias Among Eritrean and Ethiopian Diasporic Women and Femmes in Los Angeles
Helena Mello	Racial and Economic Profile nearby the Police Stations in Belo Horizonte, Brazil
Alana Seaman & Karleigh Kolander	Framed as flat: Exploring the relationship between tourism & place depictions devoid of diversity
Joshua Blockstein	Equitable Resilience: Understanding Preferred Community Assets and Latinx Social Capital																														